

UC San Diego

Modern Philosophy Graduate Workshop

May 19-20, 2022

Thursday, May 19

Public Engagement Building, 520

9:30am:

Evangelian Collings (Pitt)

"Applying Descartes's Causal Principle to the Passions of the Soul"

Commentator: Leo Moauro (UCSD)

10:50am:

Zachary Gartenberg (Johns Hopkins)

"Spinoza's Definition of Faith"

Commentator: Jacob Zellmer (UCSD)

1:30pm:

Erin Islo (Princeton)

"The Politics of Monism"

Commentator: Dafna Mark Ben Shabat (UCSD)

2:50pm:

Carl Christian Abrahamsen (NYU)

"Sophie de Grouchy on Tragedy, Sympathy, and the 'Need to be Moved'"

Commentator: Zack Brants (UCSD)

4:30pm: KEYNOTE

Kristin Primus (UC Berkeley)

"Spinoza on Common Notions"

Friday, May 20

Public Engagement Building, 520

9:30am:

Luciano Perulli (KU Leuven)

"Wolff and Crusius on Experience, Ordinary Language and the Ontology of Time and Space"

Commentator: Joe Stratmann (UCSD/UT Knoxville)

10:50am:

Tyler Re (Penn)

"A Kantian Desideratum on Good Work"

Commentator: Daniel Cohen (UCSD)

1:30pm:

Laurenz Ramsauer (Chicago)

"Kant's Racism as a Philosophical Problem"

Commentator: JC Gonzalez (UCSD)

2:50pm:

Thomas Lambert (Princeton)

"Willing and Not Being Able: Nietzsche and Akrasia"

Commentator: Bas Tönissen (UCSD)

4:30pm: KEYNOTE

Marie Jayasekera (CSU Long Beach)

"Self-Government in Astell"

For more details visit: ucsdmodernphil.weebly.com